SEARCH TIPS

Browse by Geography to choose countries in Asia, then choose a Classification (e.g. Paintings, Sculpture, etc.)

Browse collections specializing in Asian art (e.g. Southeast Asia Visions: John M. Echols Collection), or browse museums with encyclopedic collections (e.g. The Metropolitan Museum of Art or Los Angeles County Museum of Art) by Classification, then by countries in Asia

Use the asterisk () when keyword searching to truncate your terms and retrieve variant endings (e.g. buddh will retrieve buddha, buddhist, buddhism, etc.)

DID YOU KNOW?

ARTstor shares several collections that document important religious sites and architecture throughout Asia. These include: the Mellon International Dunhuang Archive (Buddhist cave shrines in Dunhuang, China); Shuilu'an Temple (Northwestern University) (Buddhist sculpture at Shuilu'an Temple in Lantian, China); Deepanjana Danda Klein and Arno Klein: Cave Temples at Ellora, India (Buddhist, Hindu, and Jain cave shrines in Ellora, India); Beyond the Taj: Architectural Traditions and Landscape Experience in South Asia (Cornell University Library); and Carl Strom and Jennifer Strom: Korean Buddhist Monasteries (Buddhist temple and monastery art in South Korea). For the Dunhuang caves and Shuilu-an Temple, ARTstor offers scholars and students unique visual documentation of the sites with high resolution digital photography and QuickTime Virtual Reality (QTVR) panoramas.
